

Attachment Parenting of Bergen County

~~ peaceful parenting for a peaceful world ~~

Why Join API of Bergen County?

Attachment Parenting International™ (API) is a non-profit member organization networking with concerned parents, professionals, and like-minded organizations around the world. We advocate parenting methods that develop and fulfill a child's need for trust, empathy, and affection in order to create secure and enduring relationships both in childhood and throughout the lifespan.

API of Bergen County, NJ is an affiliate of API, a 501(c)(3) non-profit member organization. API support groups now span the United States and countries around the world. Research shows that parents who receive this kind of informal support feel more relaxed and more competent in their parenting. API of Bergen County helps empower parents and strengthen families through networking, support, educational resources and referrals. Your annual membership includes a one-year subscription to the quarterly API News.

When you join API through your local support group, you are supporting the activities of your group which include: Monthly Meetings, Special Presentations, Lending Library, Phone Counseling and Assistance from your Leaders, Special Events, and Group Administrative costs.

Add your name to the growing list of AP families and support this important work.
